

Archie 100: A Century of the Archibald Prize

Learning programs

Online, please enquire

Professional learning (virtual teacher salon)

A session for teachers to prepare their students with curriculum links and themes, providing inspiration for the classroom. This Gallery educator led session includes a preview of the exhibition and supports 1 hour of teacher-identified professional learning time.

Learning resources

Online

Portraiture learning resource

Explore now

Designed to engage audience with portraiture, this online education kit includes Create, Engage, Investigate and Reflect activities and ideas responding to portraiture for Primary and secondary students.

Online

Explore Archie 100

Explore now

Highlights the exhibition themes, archive materials, video and links to Archie database.

Online

Finding the Archibald (on ABC iView)

Watch now

Art lover and acclaimed actor Rachel Griffiths presents a three-part documentary series for ABC-TV on the centenary of the prize.

For more information or to book a program contact:

Louise Halpin
Senior education program producer
Art Gallery of New South Wales
louise.halpin@ag.nsw.gov.au
(02) 9225 1770